

Michael Fibiger: Education: teacher, and cand. psych. from the University of Copenhagen; clinical psychologist. Jobs: clinical psychologist for a municipality. Chief psychologist concerning special education to handicapped. Chief of department of psychology and support. Chief consultant psychologist for factories and institutions. Chief psychologist concerning crises.

As for lepidoptera: collecting and studying macro-lepidoptera for 53 years. Wrote (and edited) 12 books about lepidoptera; and 127 scientific papers, incl. small non-refereed papers. Made more than 5400 genital preparations. Vice-president of Societas Europaeae Lepidopterologica 1980-1992. President of the Entomological Society in Denmark. Editor in chief of Noctuidae Europaeae. Travelled, gave speeches, and collected in most parts of the Old World. Donated approx. half a million specimens of micro-lepidoptera to the Zoological Museum, University of Copenhagen (associated there).