Editor's note

This volume was published later than might have been possible. One reason is that Bonner zoologische Beiträge changed both its chief editor and its layout with the start of volume 51 and I had to wait until the first proofs of issue 1 were printed to have a prototype (because layouting of the proceedings volume was realized on my PC).

Most authors and most reviewers did their job very quickly. Some contributors to the symposium did not supply their manuscripts, even in cases where it was promised firmly. Here I lost time in reminding the colleagues. All oral or poster-contributions to the symposium where I received no manuscript – published elsewhere, no interest or no time – are published in this volume by a “summary”.

My thanks go to the colleagues that took over the task of reviewing. These are: Mark Adams, Gerhard Aubrecht, Joanne Cooper, Renate van den Elzen,

Marcel Güntert, Christoph Hinkelmann, Claus König, Townsend Peterson, Jörn Scharlemann, Michael Schmitt, Frank Steinheimer and Raffael Winkler. Roald Potapov submitted his paper in Russian (he was allowed to do so). I thank David Tarkhnishvili for the translation of R. Potapov's paper and to Stefanie Rick, who read all proofs and improved some of the figures. My special thanks are directed to Christopher Husband, Berkum, who made a complete review of the volume after type setting and layout. I was in permanent exchange with Renate van den Elzen; I thank her warmly for all assistance.

Bonner zoologische Beiträge are in delay in the moment. Volume 51 ought to be published in 2002; therefore the correct citation is: [name] 2003 [title]. In: Bird collections in Europe: The challenge of mutual cooperation. (RHEINWALD, G., ed.). Bonn. zool. Beitr. 51 (2002): [pages].
